Dear Families of the Immaculate Heart of Mary,

Love of God and love of neighbor are inseparable. Jesus articulates these responsibilities as the two great commandments which sum up the entire Law, given to Moses in the Torah. The first reading from Exodus demonstrates the relationship between these two commandments in the treatment of foreigners and the care for the poor. Because God has cared for Israel, Israel must care for others.

While Jesus sees the two great commandments as inseparable, in practice, we separate them all the time, tending toward one to the exclusion of the other. On one hand, we "spiritualize" and privatize our prayer and relationship with God, keeping it in a nice, neat box away from the rest of life and other people. On the other, we avoid cultivating a relationship with God, thinking it unnecessary or a distraction from doing what "actually matters;" caring for others. For Jesus, loving God is what creates the context for loving our neighbors—that is why it is given first—but it necessitates a personal and external practice of faith in action.

Immaculate Heart of Mary, pray for us.

Queridas Familias del Inmaculado Corazón de María,

El amor a Dios y el amor al prójimo son inseparables. Jesús articula estas responsabilidades como los dos grandes mandamientos que resumen toda la Ley, entregada a Moisés en la Torá. La primera lectura del Éxodo demuestra la relación entre estos dos mandamientos en el trato a los extranjeros y el cuidado de los pobres. Porque Dios ha cuidado de Israel, Israel debe cuidar de los demás.

Aunque Jesús considera los dos grandes mandamientos como inseparables, en la práctica los separamos constantemente, tendiendo hacia uno en detrimento del otro. Por un lado, "espiritualizamos" y privatizamos nuestra oración y relación con Dios, guardándola en una caja bonita y ordenada, lejos del resto de la vida y de las demás personas. Por otro lado, evitamos cultivar una relación con Dios, pensando que es innecesaria o una distracción de hacer lo que "realmente importa"; cuidar de los demás. Para Jesús, amar a Dios es lo que crea el contexto para amar al prójimo—por eso se da primero—pero requiere una práctica personal y externa de la fe en acción.

Inmaculado Corazón de María, ruega por nosotros.

Entrance Hymn

Love, Divine, All Loves Excelling HYFRYDOL

1. Love divine, all loves excelling,
Joy of heav'n to earth come down!
Fix in us your humble dwelling,
All your faithful mercies crown.
Jesus, source of all compassion,
Love unbounded, love all pure;
Visit us with your salvation,
Let your love in us endure.
2. Come, Almighty, to deliver,
Let us all your life receive;
Suddenly return and never,
Nevermore your temples leave.
You we would be always blessing,
Serve you as your hosts above,
Pray, and praise you without ceasing,
Glory in your precious love.
3. Finish then your new creation,
Pure and spotless, gracious Lord.
Let us see your great salvation
Perfectly in you restored.
Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heav'n we take our place,
Till we sing before the Almighty
Lost in wonder, love and praise.

Text: Charles Wesley, 1707-1788; Tune: HYFRYDOL, alt.

you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,

Communion Hymn

Life-Giving Bread, Saving Cup
James Chepponis

Life-giv-ing bread, sav-ing cup, we of-fer in thanks-giv-ing, O God.

Life-giv-ing bread, sav-ing cup, we of-fer as a sign of our love.

1. For bread that is broken, we give thanks;
for wine that is poured, we give praise.
For life and for knowledge of the kingdom:
all praise to you until the end of time!
2. We thank you, O Father, for your name,
which you give to dwell in our hearts.
You bring us together as one fam'ly:
all praise to you until the end of time!
3. Creator of all, we offer thanks;
you give us a share in your life.
You strengthen our body and our spirit:
all praise to you until the end of time!
4. Remember your Church which sings your praise;
perfect it in truth and in love.
And gather your people all together
to praise you until the end of time!

A New Commandment

Steven Janco

I give you a new com-mand-ment:

Love one an-oth-er as I have loved

you, as I have loved you.

1. This is my will, my one command:
That love should dwell among you all.
This is my will, that you should love
as I have shown that I love you.
2. No greater love that one can have than that one die to save one's friends.
You are my friends, if you obey
what I command that you should do.
3. I call you now, no longer slaves;
no slave knows all the master does.
I call you friends, for all I hear,
my Father say you hear from me.
4. You chose, not me, but I chose you,
that you should go and bear much fruit.
I chose you out that you in me
should bear much fruit that will abide.

They'll Know We Are Christians

Peter Scholtes

We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord,
we are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord,
and we pray that all unity may one day be re stored:
And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love,
Yes, they'll know we are Christians by our love.

We will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand,
we will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand,
and together we'll spread the news that God is in our land:
And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love,
Yes, they'll know we are Christians by our love.

We will work with each other, we will work side by side,
we will work with each other, we will work side by side,
and we'll guard human's dignity and save human's pride:
And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love,
Yes, they'll know we are Christians by our love.

Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ex 22:20-26 | 1 Thes 1:5c-10 | Mt 22:34-40

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

“You shall love your neighbor as yourself.” Sounds simple, right? Not so much. Jesus’ words in today’s Gospel can’t help but take us back to that age-old question: “And just who is my neighbor?” According to the Lord’s words in the reading from Exodus, our neighbors are the alien, the widow, and the orphan. Documents from the USCCB such as “Welcoming the Stranger Among Us: Unity in Diversity” and its writings on the Life and Dignity of the Human Person clearly reflect the position of the U.S. Bishops that it is essential for public policy to respect the dignity of all. While challenging at times, our faith doesn’t offer guidance only for interior, spiritual realities. Indeed, our Church proclaims that we must let the demands of the Gospel shape the whole of our society. We are – to use St. John Paul II’s phrase – to work to build a “culture of life,” a “civilization of love.” In the end, Catholic Social Teaching is nothing but the Church’s effort to live Christ’s call to love our neighbor as ourselves in the wider human community.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

In response to the scholar of the law’s question about which commandment is the greatest, Jesus responds by saying that it is to “love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind.” Heart, soul, and mind are words that describe the innermost self. The Lord – it is clear – wants to be loved fully, by all that we have and are. He wants to be loved as the only Lord in our lives; there can be no other. St. Paul praises the Thessalonians for turning “to God from idols to serve the living and true God.” In other words, they underwent a change of heart, where they turned away from loving things that were not God to loving and serving the only true God. This change of heart has enabled them to become witnesses to others of Christ’s love. In our own lives, we must also undergo conversion if we wish to bear authentic witness to the Lord and to our faith. What are the idols we need to let go of to surrender our hearts, souls, and minds more fully to the Lord?

STUDY

As Catholics, we all have a responsibility to form our consciences and deepen our knowledge of the Church’s teaching surrounding critical issues facing our world today. Spend some time this week familiarizing yourself with the Seven Themes of Catholic Social Teaching, which are “a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amid the challenges of modern society.” (USCCB)

Love God First

When the iconic Notre-Dame Cathedral of Paris burned in 2019, some made the argument that the money necessary to rebuild it would be better spent by the Church on providing services to the poor.

"After all," I heard someone argue. "History is important, but humanitarianism is our religion."

Close, but — as my father likes to say — no cigar.

Humanitarianism is actually not our religion, and you should never let anyone tell you it is. It's a small mistake, but it can become a big one, fast. Humanitarianism is wonderful — it describes a set of principles animated by an underlying belief in the value of human life. But this is not sufficient. We can't start with loving people and work our way up to God.

Why? Because I promise you, we will never end up reaching God.

If you have any doubt about this, you can consult literally any history book. Every war, every famine, every political disaster since the dawn of time has resulted from an attempt to put people first. "We're putting our people first," governments say — always right before they do something really, really heinous.

For what it's worth, the Church hasn't owned the Notre-Dame de Paris since the French Revolution. It was seized and rededicated to the Cult of Reason — the atheistic state religion that, it assured everyone, put people first (and put those people who disagreed to death at the guillotine).

We can't start with love of people, because we will always displace some of the other people. Only by starting with love of God — heart, soul, and mind — can we enter the narrow gate of correctly loving other people.

Ama a Dios primero

Cuando la icónica catedral de Notre-Dame de París se incendió en 2019, algunos argumentaron que el dinero necesario para reconstruirla sería mejor invertido por la Iglesia en prestar servicios a los pobres.

"Después de todo", escuché a alguien discutir. "La historia es importante, pero el humanitarismo es nuestra religión."

Casi, pero — como le gusta decir a mi padre — nada de puro.

El humanitarismo en realidad no es nuestra religión, y nunca deberías dejar que nadie te diga que lo es. Es un error pequeño, pero puede convertirse en uno grande, rápidamente. El humanitarismo es maravilloso — describe un conjunto de principios animados por una creencia subyacente en el valor de la vida humana. Pero esto no es suficiente. No podemos empezar por amar a las personas y avanzar hasta llegar a Dios.

¿Por qué? Porque te prometo que nunca llegaremos a Dios.

Si tienes alguna duda sobre esto, puedes consultar literalmente cualquier libro de historia. Cada guerra, cada hambruna, cada desastre político desde el principio de los tiempos ha sido resultado de un intento de poner a la gente en primer lugar. "Estamos poniendo a nuestra gente primero", dicen los gobiernos — siempre justo antes de hacer algo realmente, realmente atroz.

Por lo que vale, la Iglesia no ha poseído la Notre-Dame de París desde la Revolución Francesa. Fue tomada y rededicada al Culto a la Razón — la religión estatal atea que, aseguraba a todos, ponía a las personas en primer lugar (y ponía a la guillotina a quienes no estaban de acuerdo).

No podemos empezar por el amor a las personas, porque siempre desplazaremos a algunas de las demás. Solo empezando con el amor a Dios — corazón, alma y mente — podemos entrar en la estrecha puerta de amar correctamente a otras personas.
